

All Over Again Font License

This font is donationware. That means you will have to make a donation through PayPal in order to use it, commercially or non-commercially. The amount is entirely up to you! You can either donate directly through PayPal, using hanoded@gmail.com as the receiving address, or click the 'donate to author' button on DaFont. Do mention 'All Over Again font' when you donate, so I can keep track of things.

Thanks a bunch,
